“ My favorite story about my baby brother is when he shared when we were in our 50s. Neither Nubby nor I have any memory of this. Apparently it traumatized him greatly. We were on the beach in Pompton Lakes. We were 5, 7, and 9 respectively, each with a bag of Cheetos. Curt asked me to watch his bag while he went "potty". We decided to eat them and when he came back we told him they were getting stale. He believed this for a long time. We will miss you Bro.

“I met you when I first came down to Englewood in 2005 and we became good friends. Though I hadn't seen you in a while, that friendship was always there. I will miss your humor on Facebook. I only wish I had gotten to see you before you were gone. I will miss you but I know you are in Gods hands.

“Curtis and I were in the same home room in our freshmen year in OHS, we both went to Nam 71/72 and we both ride "Fat boys". We would converse weekly via FB and although he had a difference of opinion on some subjects we were always respectful of each others views. I will miss you my friend. Godspeed
