

Kenneth E. Wall

June 13, 1928 - May 4, 2020

Kenneth E. Wall, 91, of Englewood, Florida passed away Monday, May 4, 2020 at his Sarasota County residence.

Born on June 13, 1928 in Syracuse, New York to the late Raymond and Marguerite Arnold Wall, he had been a resident of Englewood for twenty-three years coming from Burlington, Vermont. A 1946 graduate of North High in Syracuse; he dedicated his life to the field of aviation. He served 31 years in the Airforce Air National Guard, was employed by several high-profile companies in aircraft maintaince and inspection and he installed the first experimental GPS systems for aircraft as well as having held a private pilot license since he was fifteen years old. Ken also loved boating, where he always was happy relaxing with his family on "The Puffin".

He retired in 1996 to Florida where he was very active in the Tangerine Woods Association. He poured for the ceramic studio, participated in the Lazy Days Men's group, did park security, and over saw the daily maintenance of the pool for twenty years.

Ken was deeply loved by his family and his community.

He is pre-deceased by his wife of fifty-seven years: Eleanor Wall in 2008.

Survivors include his children: James Wall of Ft. Myers Beach, Florida and Joanne (Dan) Plourde of Sugar Hill, Georgia; three grandchildren: Jenny (Ryan) Pahl, Jim (Melissa) Plourde and Christopher Wall; two great grandchildren: Benjamin and Ellie Pahl and all his dear friends at Tangerine Woods.

Comments

“ I would like to offer my condolence to Ken's family.
I worked for Ken for many years at AirNorrh / Northern Airways. Ken was a wonderful person to work for. Very kind, fair boss and was liked by employees and customers. After Ken moved to Florida I enjoyed having lunch with him when he came up for the summers. Your parents and mine used to square dance many years ago. I think they were Lake Side Steppers.
He was a wonderful man. You should be proud of him.
Sincerely
Dennis Hammond
