

Mollye Grable Young

December 27, 1934 - August 29, 2015

Mollye Grable Young, 80, of Venice passed away on Saturday, August 29, 2015 at Englewood Community Hospital.

Born on December 27, 1934 in Camden, Arkansas she had been a resident of Sarasota County for twenty years coming from Garden City, Michigan. A loving wife, mother and homemaker for her family, Mollye was a teacher's aide for special needs children. During the rest of her time she fulfilled the role as "coaches wife" for her late husband, Billy Joe Young who coached high school basketball and baseball. He pre-deceased her in 2006.

She was a member and former treasurer for both the Tonquish Baptist Church in Westland, MI and then the Merriman Road Baptist Church in Garden City, MI.

Survivors include her two sons: Billy Joe (Natalie Douglas) Young, Jr. of NYC, NY and Theodore (Liz McNamara) Young of Greensboro, NC; one sister: Martha Sue Nash of Atlanta, GA; and one granddaughter: Casey Young of Raleigh, NC.

A celebration of Mollye's life will be at a later date.

Englewood Community Funeral Home with Private Crematory has been selected to handle arrangements. You may share a memory with the family at <http://www.Englewoodfh.com>

“ I remember Mollye from our time together in the Camden High School Band. She was a year younger than me so we were in the same two schools for 11 years. Camden was a small town. In 1954 or '55 I met her, by chance, on a street in Clarksville, TN outside Fort Campbell, KY. Her husband was also stationed at Fort Campbell. I wish I would have known she was living in Venice. We live about 15 miles north in Sarasota.

Our prayers are with her family.
